NADCA Chapter 30 Vendor's Night Attracts Over 120 Attendees

NADCA Chapter 30 and the American Foundry Society Southern California Chapter co-hosted their annual Vendor's Night March 10, 2016 at the Rio Hondo Golf Club & Event Center in Downey, CA.

Every year, California's two largest metal casting chapters come together to recognize the leading vendors to our industry. NADCA National displayed at this event, educating attendees on the benefits and services the association has to offer, as well as demonstrate the NADCA Online Education System. Over 120 participants enjoyed an exciting evening of food, prizes, and displays from the industry's top vendors, showcasing their latest products and services. During the event, James Simonelli, California Metals Coalition, was awarded the 2015 NADCA 30 Distinguished Service Award.

Chapter 30 - Left to Right: Kent Shortle of Rangers Die Casting (NADCA 30 Board Member and 2000 Distinguished Service Award Recipient), Jeff Mock of Thorock Metals (NADCA 30 Board Member and 1995 Distinguished Service Award Recipient), James Simonelli of California Metals Coalition (part time janitor), Russ Gunn of Russ Gunn Insurance (NADCA 30 Board Member), Steve Livingston (AFS So Cal Past President), Craig Mock (Past NADCA 30 Board Member and 2008 Distinguished Service Award Recipient)

This event was an excellent opportunity to network with individuals in the industry. In addition, this event did an outstanding job engaging students who are interested in careers in the metalcasting industry. Numerous students from California Polytechnic State University were present at the event and had the chance to engage industry professionals, further nurturing their interest in pursuing careers in our industry.
